Henry said, it will lead not only to enlarging the sphere of mental pleasure of man, but probably to the application of science to the art of living. Professor M. F. Maury puts it in this way: "Within this Polar area the tides have their cradle, and whales their nursery. Their winds complete their circuit, and the currents of the sea their round, in the wonderful system."

a blackened mass. Of this 75,000 acres were woodland, oak, cedar, pine, and holly. At 10,000 acres of vineyards and 9,000 of cranberry bogs were also destroyed.
